FINANCIAL REVIEW

The Company recorded a net loss and total comprehensive loss of $9,665,000 and $8,730,000 (a loss per common share of $0.11 and $0.11) for the fiscal years ended July 31, 2016 and 2015 respectively.

Research and development

Research and development costs totalled $5,821,000 and $4,885,000, respectively for the twelve periods ended July 31, 2016 and July 31, 2015.

Research and development expenses for the year ended July 31, 2016 when compared to the year ended July 31, 2015 were impacted by higher contract research organization costs related to the European Phase I/II clinical study in Poland and costs associated with the Phase I clinical trial of LDOS001 in the U.S. but were offset by lower contract manufacturing expenditures in the current year. The Company paid an amount to the consulting group involved in the Company's successful qualification for grant money from the Polish National Center for Research and Development.

Operating, general and administration

Operating, general and administration expenses for the years ended July 31, 2016 and July 31, 2015 totalled $3,836,000 and $3,892,000 respectively). Consulting services fees decreased in fiscal 2016, primarily as a result of factors related to Helix's termination of several third-party consultants. This decrease was partially offset higher costs relating to senior management change overs.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's cash reserves of $3,654,000, as at July 31, 2016, are insufficient to meet anticipated cash needs for working capital and capital expenditures through the next twelve months, nor are they sufficient to see the current research and development initiatives through to completion. Management therefore considers securing additional funds, expected to be through the issuance of equity securities of the Company, to be of the utmost importance.

The Company's Consolidated Statement of Financial Position as at July 31, 2016 and July 31, 2015 are summarized below.

Forward-looking statements can further be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "ongoing", "estimates", "expects", or the negative thereof or any other variations thereon or comparable terminology referring to future events or results, or that events or conditions "will", "may", "could", or "should" occur or be achieved, or comparable terminology referring to future events or results.
